

20. MARCH 2019

GREEN PRODUCT AWARD 2019

The Green Product Award 2019 for innovative and sustainable design of products and services was given during IHM trade fair in Munich/DE. The nominees and awarded products were presented in the Green Campus. Informative presentations of the winning companies completed the programme.

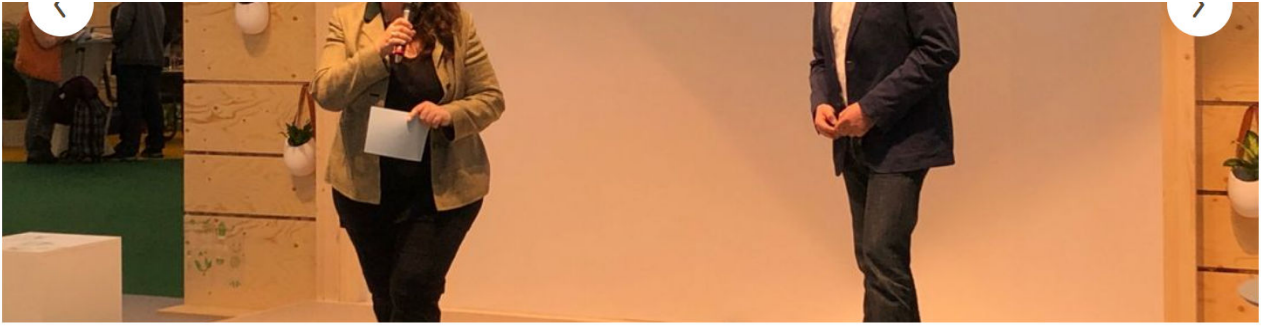

Our natural wallpaper ALMWIESN was awarded Winner in the category Living!

As you can see our sales director Mr. Hans-Peter Forster (right) is very happy about this prize for the breathable flax wallpaper.

Mr. Nils Bader (left) initiated the Green Product Awards and handed over the winning certificate.
